Abstract

The Ex-Servicemen's Club of Plymouth was an organization for all men who served in any division of the armed services. This included American servicemen and servicemen from any allied nation. The group had a ladies' Auxiliary that started in 1927 and participated in public affairs, including fundraising and organization events. The club was greatly involved in public activities and participated in parades, various church activities, fundraising for schools, sponsoring a boy scout troop and other civic affairs.

Scope and Content

The Ex-Servicemen's Club record group consists of administrative documents event programs, and some photographs. The administrative documents include meeting minutes, account ledgers, group rosters, and by-laws.
